I was hired at Playmoove as a UI engineer. When they found out I could write, they asked me to. At every company, this is how it's gone.

THE PATTERN

WRITING & CREATIVE WORK

leobruno.it PEN NAME 2024 – present
leobruno.it — Essays, Fiction, Poetry, Visual Art

Literary and visual art platform published under the pen name Leo Bruno. Essays, short fiction, poetry — a single continuous text across disciplines. Work submitted to McSweeney's Internet Tendency and Italian literary journals. Studied under poet David Ray at UMKC; published in Newletters.

Playmoove Enterprise Website 2024 – present
Playmoove, Cagliari — Website Copy, Brand Guidelines & Technical Documentation

Hired as a UI/UX engineer. Ultimately produced all written content for the enterprise rebrand: website copy, brand guidelines, and technical documentation. Built the React/Next.js platform, then filled it with writing precise enough to defend in stakeholder review.

HyperPedal Pre-2024
MagicMotorsport, Partinico (Sicily) — Product Development & Copy

Created HyperPedal — product concept, development, and all written materials — for MagicMotorsport, a motorsport electronics manufacturer. A developer who thinks in product and writes in voice.

Bernstein-Rein Website Copy Ongoing
Bernstein-Rein Advertising, Kansas City — Agency Website

Wrote the website copy for one of Kansas City's storied ad agencies — the agency that created the McDonald's Happy Meal. Ongoing: also build and produce their digital advertising work.

EXPERIENCE

Creative Developer

Playmoove — Smart Mobility Platform

Apr 2024 — present

Cagliari, Sardinia

Hired as a frontend engineer. Became the de facto writer, brand voice, and cultural glue. Built the enterprise platform in React/Next.js and wrote everything on it: copy, brand guidelines, technical documentation. The company looks different than it did before I arrived.
